Dear Pat:

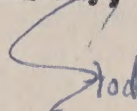

In reference to your phone call the other evening,
I have since taken the matter up with our Executive Committee.

They were in complete agreement with me as regards the football season. There is no Friday during the season which we could get together the group we would like to see in Northampton.

The date we then decided on, and I hope it fits your plans, too, was December second. Incidentally, it is the night after our 1951 Executive Committee elections which might in itself prove interesting.
We are tentatively planning to sign WYBC off the air for the entire day following our morning program.

Otherwise, very little. Perhaps I shall see you at WUMA Sunday. At least in this sober condition I plan to attend.

Cordially,

SPJ/fmm
